DAY 5 : A DAY-TRIP IN THE BUSH

NOUMÉA > BOURAIL → 🚗 2H

Starting from Nouméa, we offer three unique day trips to discover the west coast of New Caledonia:

→ Skydiving at Poé airfield: for a real adrenaline rush over the turquoise lagoon, with a view of the coral reef, the plains and New Caledonia's central chain. Organiser Nouméa Skydive ensures a return shuttle service from Nouméa.

→ Immerse yourself in the bush culture of the stockmen and the Caledonian far west with Bourail Shuttle Service: including a meal and visit to a farm, cattle feeding and tasting the farm's produce.

→ A welcome from a Kanak tribe organised by Bourail Shuttle Service: traditional customs, lunch in a traditional wooden house, tour of the fields, weaving or fishing workshop...

- For an adrenaline rush, try skydiving
- Immerse yourself in bush culture in Bourail
- Discover the Kanak customs with a local tribe at La Foa

DAY 6 : THE BEACHES AND CAVES OF LIFOU

NOUMÉA > LIFOU → ✈ 40 MIN

A change of scenery for this 6th day. In the morning, take off from the Nouméa-Magenta domestic airport to Lifou, the largest of the Loyalty Islands! After picking up your rental car at Wé airport, head south of the island to make the most of the wonderful Luengoni Beach. With its white sand and crystal-clear water, this is sheer heaven! Watch out for the turtles who often make an appearance. For lunch, if you didn't buy a sandwich at Wé, you can eat at L'Oasis de Kiamu or Chez Bella. Don't forget to book ahead! In the afternoon, swim in the Luengoni caves (organised guided tour Chez Bella), then drive back to Peng beach to witness a magical sunset...

- Swim in the caves of Luengoni equipped with fins, mask and snorkel
- Bask on the picture-postcard beach of Luengoni
- Head to Peng beach to admire the sunset

DAY 7 : ENJOY A TRIBAL WELCOME IN LIFOU

LIFOU → 🚗 15MIN + 🚗 1H10

The island of Lifou is not only known for its white sandy beaches and its unrivalled natural gems. It is also a privileged destination for once-in-a-lifetime experiences with the Kanak tribes that live on the island. Several families have decided to open their doors, much to the delight of visitors. Programme of the day, organised with Tamanou Beach, Lifou Nature and or Chez Jeannette: Kanak customs, cooking and tasting the bougna – a traditional dish, a visit to the huts and plantations, introduction to the secrets of medicinal plants... The kind of day you may only experience once in your lifetime!

- Take part in the tribe's daily life
- Walk the customary path and take in the local plantations
- Prepare the bougna

DAY 8 : DIVE IN THE LIFOU LAGOON

LIFOU > NOUMÉA → ✈ 40 MIN

For this last morning in Lifou, dive amongst tropical fishes in the Lifou lagoon. There are several popular spots, with easy access. You can set off in a boat to go snorkelling with Rand'O Palmée. Otherwise, there are two stunning sites where you can go snorkelling on your own, at the Jokin Cliffs and in Jinek Bay. These unspoilt open-air aquariums are home to a wide variety of fish and corals of every colour imaginable. Good tip: you can hire snorkelling equipment in Jokin, at Faré Falaise. After your swim, have a bite to eat on the island and then fly back to the capital, Nouméa.

- Take a boat trip to admire the island from a new angle
- Go snorkelling to see multicoloured fishes and corals up close
- Admire the view from the cliffs of Jokin before going for a dip in the lagoon
